2. Background information

The European Prison Litigation Network (EPLN) is an international network of NGOs aiming to heighten the judicial protection of prisoners' fundamental rights in Europe.

To this end, EPLN develops its action in three priority areas: the promotion of prisoners' access to justice, the defense of prisoners' access to healthcare and the prevention of violence, ill-treatment and torture in prison.

The consultancy takes place in the framework of the "PrisonCivilAct" project, funded by the European Union (EU). The project gathers partners from 14 EU countries and aims to enhance NGOs' capacity to impact on prison and penal policies at domestic and European level and to resolve structural problems of prison systems in the continent.

3. Objectives and Deliverables

The aim of the consultancy is to contribute to a:

- A coordinated monitoring of domestic prison legal news in 14 EU countries by providing regular information on legal evolutions on prison and prisoners' rights in GREECE. The coordination is ensured by the EPLN Secretariat. The end product is a roundup of domestic prison legal news published on a quarterly basis and disseminated to the broader public via mailing lists and social media.
- A comparative research on the impact at domestic level of European interventions on structural/systemic problems affecting prison systems in nine EU countries subject to pilot or quasi-pilot judgments, by conducting a field and desk research in GREECE. The end product is a comparative research report compiling the findings of each national reports. The final research report's findings are to be presented during a conference.

The deliverables the consultant is expected to submit are:

- For the legal monitoring: 6 legal monitoring reports, each on a bimonthly basis
- For the research: 1 domestic research report based on desk and field research (including mostly interviews with relevant stakeholders in the prison field).

All deliverables are to be submitted in English, in electronic form, in Word format, in accordance with the guidelines and deadlines agreed. The consultant is responsible for quality control of language accuracy. The submission should be sent in a way that directly enables publication.

4. Methodology
